July 2.

TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

Sch. Kentucky Arrived with Another Fine Fare.

NETTERS DID LITTLE TODAY.

Capt. Prior Reports Fish Wild and in Small Schools.

Capt. Elroy Prior and crew of sch. Kentucky came home today to celebrate the glorious Fourth, and they will have something to celebrate on, for the craft has 275 barrels of salt mackerel and the first offer therefor was $15 per barrel.

The Kentucky stocked over $5000 on her Cape Shore trip and with the proceeds of this fare added will have probably the second largest stock of the seining fleet and this in spite of the fact that Capt. Prior did not go south, making $3000 on two shack trips while the fleet were out there and then fitting out for seining when Cape Shore time came. It is hard to find the equal of Capt. Prior as an all around fisherman, for he is equally at home and does equally well at any branch of fishing.

The fare was caught between No Man's Land and South Shoal lightship, one haul of 175 barrels being made when Capt. Jacobs got his big trip. Since then Capt. Prior reports that the fish were wild and in small schools, about as they were off here a few days ago. He picked up the other 100 barrels of his fare from these small schools.

|| Capt. Prior states that very few of the fleet have salted any fish. On Sunday last there was a lot of fish showing and a man could set almost any kind of a school he had a mind to pick out, but the fish were so very wild that but few catches were made. Since then the fish showed only in small schools.

Capt. Prior was of the opinion that the fish would be on the shore this season as none had been taken on Georges as yet and it was getting along later than last year when big hauls were made there.

Sch. Maud S. arrived at Portland yesterday with 250 barrels salt mackerel.

The spring catch of mackerel in Chebucto Bay, N. S., amounted to about 10,000 barrels, over half of which were salted. Buyers from this city, Boston and New York have been there and bought most of them.

The fare of salt mackerel of sch. Rebecca was sold to the Knowles Freeman Fish Co. of Boston at $14.50 per barrel.

Five barrels of Prince Edward Island mackerel, the first of the season, reached Boston yesterday. They went 140 count and were of fine color.

Sch. Leander F. Gould at Newport yesterday had 50 barrels of salt mackerel in addition to her fresh fare.

The fare of sch. James S. Steele sold to George Perkins & Son at $15 1-8 per barrel.

At Boston today from off Race Point are sch. Emerald, 16 barrels fresh mackerel; steamer Vigilant 60 barrels and steamer A. B. Nickerson 100 barrels, all fresh.

The netting fleet off here did well yesterday landing about 225 barrels fresh mackerel at the Fort, selling at 8 and 5 cents apiece for large and mediums.

At Boston today fresh mackerel are selling for 10 and 7 cents each for large and mediums.

Sch. Mertis H. Perry is at Boston today with 1400 fresh mackerel and sch. Lillian with 2000.

The fare of Sch. Kentucky sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Company for a lump sum, the amount being better than a quotation of $15 per barrel.

Advices from our correspondents at New Bedford and Newport, R. I., report that a gale of wind is blowing in that locality.

The boats at Provincetown report some fish schooling off there.

Five hundred and sixty-one barrels of Irish mackerel are in transit for Philadelphia, most of them for S. H. Levin & Co.
